

Happy Hump Day '85,

So, if you didn't get any good pics of the weekend, I am going to make your day. Here is the link to the Annapolis Photographer's Download of the weekends' pictures they shot all weekend. They will be uploading more soon, but we are a damn good looking bunch!! Enjoy these as your reunion gift from me!!

This link will also remain on the website as its permanent home and they are not copyrighted, yours to download and enjoy. If you want prints made, contact Marcus Chacona:

marcus@theannapolisphotographer.com

He will hook you up with the prints you want at a heavily discounted price. Marcus wants to join our trip to Normandy in 2029, I hope he comes with us.

Let's talk Class of '85 Watches. Many of you saw the display watch at the registration desk all weekend and I am pretty sure we had some interested buyers. The watch on display was the 42mm model we have already placed an order for that is under production. John Kanaras of Axia Timepieces will open another window for us to get these at the reduced price of $895.00 until October 15th. There was also some interest in a 38mm size, ideal for ladies and those with smaller wrists. Here is the link to order this awesome custom Swiss Timepiece in either size:

We have already met the minimum number for the 42mm order because of your previous purchases, John would need an order of at least 20 to manufacture the 38mm size. This company is the official time piece of the NCAA CFP as well as the Heisman Trophy program, just to mention a few. From the Class of '85 website merchandise area, you can find websites to purchase customized Class of '85 apparel, Glassware, Liquor Flasks and other items. Lots of GREAT stuff and Christmas is approaching quickly.

I am working on getting out the registration for the Army/Navy Tailgate soon and I hope I will see some of you again in Baltimore for the big game and for our tailgate/watch party.

As always, stay tuned and I am off to treat my wife, Tracey, to a special day and evening on the Las Vegas strip. Cheers and Go Navy!!
